Class History

Our story began four short years ago in the fall of '63. We had come to our first great goal. We were freshmen! Mr. Walls was given the nerve racking task of steering our class along the road to success. Our class officers, Greg MacDonald, Ron Crosby, Vicki Dehnart and Rodney Schey, led us in our freshman activities and soon we were in the swing of things. Our freshman cheerleaders, Darlene Dewar, Vicki Dehnart, Mary Sue Keeran, and Mary Rayle, cheered our team throughout the games and we were all very proud when Greg MacDonald got a letter in football. For our Homecoming, Kathy Wiechart represented our class as the freshman attendant.

As old pros, we started our sophomore year. We were all eagerly looking forward to selecting our class rings and wearing them in the spring. Our class officers for our second year were Vicki Dehnart, Ron Crosby, Pat Sudlow, and Joe Rieman. Mary Butler represented our class as reserve cheerleader, and Kathy Wiechart was our Homecoming attendant.

Two down and two to go! There was no turning back now. We elected Joe Rieman, Dick Glanz, Kathy Wiechart, and Rodney Schey to lead us through this important year. Our junior year turned out to be a very busy year for everyone. Mary Butler was our varsity cheerleader and Vicki Dehnart and Judi Wagner were our Reserve cheerleaders. Mary Kay Schroeder was elected as our Homecoming attendant for our junior year. In February we found ourselves in the midst of our magazines sale, which we made very successful. Mrs. Foley had the hard work of directing our Junior play, "Headin' for the Hills", which we enjoyed producing and was a great success. Before we knew it, winter was gone and spring had come--it was prom time! We chose "Candyland" as our theme. Everybody pitched in and strung wires, twisted crepe paper, painted, built various things, strung pounds of jelly beans, and did countless other tasks. We had a wonderful time and it was an evening we'll never forget.

Finally we were Seniors! We, the class of '67 had finally made it. It was exciting to be a Senior, but we knew Seniors had a lot of responsibilities. For our final year we chose Ron Crosby, Joe Rieman, Vicki Dehnart and Kathy Wiechart as our class leaders and Mary Butler and Judi Wagner were our varsity cheerleaders. Our Homecoming queen was Mary Kay Schroeder and our senior attendant was Mary Butler. We enjoyed giving our successful Senior play, "Boardinghouse Reach", under the excellent guidance of Mrs. Hartley. Next came the task of class mottos, colors and flowers, and we chose Greenfield Village and Henry Ford Museum as the destination for our class trip. Toward spring we were measured for our caps and gowns and we knew graduation was not far away. The Juniors gave us a lovely farewell prom, "Somewhere My Love", and elected Judi Wagner and Ron Crosby as the royal couple. Our honor students for graduation were Lou Ann Lammers, Dick Glanz, Doris Kreinbrink, Nell Ann Fike, Vicki Dehnart, and Rodney Schey with Lou Ann and Dick giving the class speeches.

With tears and smiles we said goodbye to LHS, our teachers, and friends as we walked down the aisle at Commencement. With our heads high, we shall face the future and walk toward our separate goals, but we will always be united in our memories as the Class of '67.

Class Advisor

We, the Senior Class of 1967, sincerely thank Mr. Walls, our class advisor, who had the difficult job of guiding us from bewildered freshmen to successful seniors. For his advice and assistance, we are very grateful.
